ARGENTINE AFFAIRS IN LONDON.

The Stock Exchange and the Law Courts of London are agitated at present over matters connected with the Argentine crisis. The affairs of Baring Brothers, the Murrietas, Samuel B. Hale and the English Bank of the R. Plate fill the columns of all the London papers, leaving an impression on the public mind which is far from agreeable. Every week brings forwards fresh complications or revelations, and it is plain that we have not yet got to the bottom of the disastrous business which has caused a shock to the money-markets of Europe.

The experience of 15 months shews, moreover, that either through ignorance or cunning the guarantors of Baring Brothers put before the world a view of Argentine affairs in January 1891 which was most deceptive. The Prensa correspondent, writing from London last month, says:—

"It is now admitted on all hands that the Moratorio contract, from which so much was expected, has completely broken down, and that it will be necessary to make a suitable reduction of the Argentine debt, similar to what has been done for that of Uruguay."

This is precisely what we urged 15 months ago, when we denounced the Moratorio compact in unmeasured terms. At that time Rothschild and Lidderdale succeeded in convincing the people of England that the crisis of Buenos Ayres was merely a passing event, and that as soon as the Moratorio was signed, and the Bateman Legacy settled, the gold premium would decline to 50 per cent.

The Prensa correspondent goes on to say that it will probably be found feasible to make a proper settlement of the debt on the basis of an increase of one per cent in interest every three years. We should prefer to fix the increase at one per cent every five years, viz.—

1893-97.....	2 per cent
1898-1902.....	3 " "
1908 —	5 " "

We are by no means sure that the country will be able to fulfill such an obligation as the above. But we are quite certain that this would be the utmost it could pay. Above all we feel that it is urgent to come to some arrangement with the bondholders in London, instead of simply telling them "Non Possumus" when the Moratorio expires in Dec. 1893.

The Chicago Exhibition and other matters of a less urgent character are receiving due attention at the Government House. The financial interests of the country are supposed to take care of themselves. Meantime the Moratorio term is running on, and every sane person in B. Ayres knows that it will be impossible to resume the complete service of the debt at the date stipulated, which is January 1st 1894.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

THE COAL PANIC AND OTHER ODDMENTS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

March 4th.

The German Emperor's speech to his "Trusty Brandenburgers" has created some irritation in the press, as well as the unfortunate sequel of press prosecutions for "lése majesté." Amongst other offenders the Cologne Gazette has been singled out, although its article headed "A Fresh Move" was very moderate. Your contemporary simply refused to take the Emperor's advice to "grumblers" and shake the native German dust off his shoes. The Gazette says it intends to remain in the country and gives us to understand it intends to grumble and advises the free citizens of Prussia to drive from office dangerous advisers of the Sovereign. In my last letter I quoted strong opinions on the Emperor's state of mind from the Times. One of the German newspapers is to be prosecuted for simply reproducing the Times article. The German press of nearly all parties is opposed to these prosecutions on principle, and threatens to agitate for their future abolition As the Pall Mall Gazette says: "When the German Emperor thinks it necessary to protect his dignity by prosecuting a saucy housemaid of seventeen (as was the case in Dresden yesterday) things have certainly come to a curious pass. If the German people have a sense of honour as well as a sense of liberty they will laugh these press and housemaid prosecutions out of court or quickly find some other means of letting the Emperor know that he is cutting a very ridiculous figure."

The case of Carl Augusto Sampson the "strong man," who is accused of stealing £550 worth of jewelry from a foolish young married woman, Margaret Bernstein, is a decidedly interesting social study of what Lord Vernon calls "the lower classes of mankind." The case was adjourned again last night until to-morrow, when we may probably hear that the strong man has been committed for trial. The jewellry recovered at New York from Sampson consists of all the diamonds claimed, with the exception of a diamond heart locket, of which Sampson says "Maggie knows where that is," and refuses to say anything about it.

One wonders where he could have put that diamond heart. The money that Maggie gave him, about £300, to be "invested in American rails" seems to have gone into "Sporting Life" for gambling purposes. The rest with the diamonds Mr. Sampson took with him in the Majestic to New York. It is stated that Maggie's own brother introduced her to Sampson as "Miss Croft." Is it possible that the game was to be on her side; but she falling in love, as women will, with the strong man's finely proportioned limbs, the game went the other way and she became the victim?

In our domestic affairs all questions at this moment cede interest to the coal panic. House coals are selling in the streets at the rate of 40/s per ton, and the strike of the miners, if it ever occurs at all, is not to take place until the 12th inst. You will understand that so far the business is purely a dodge of the mine owners and middlemen to raise prices and get rid of their stocks. Coal, as you know, deteriorates by being stacked. The owners and middlemen had large quantities of this stuff on hand. By aiding and abetting the strike, and by absolutely inciting the men to strike, they have managed to get rid of hundreds of thousands of tons at rattling prices. I myself have just received a circular from a large northern depot deploring the panic in the trade, and whilst not recommending other people's coals, offering to supply me with their own at 28/ for best and 27/ for seconds. I have no doubt that what they offer is part of large stocks they are glad to get rid of. They see that the panic is subsiding, and that much of the nonsense about a coming coal famine and the stoppage of the industries of the nation has ceased in the public press. The consequence of the panic was of course that householders by thousands, thinking to be more canny than their neighbours, sent large orders to their dealers—orders that could not be supplied. There is no doubt about the seriousness in many respects of the miners' intention to strike in accordance with a misunderstood principle advocated by some of the socialist economists, that the only way to raise wages was to stop the output. This refers to the general question of over production, which is important in its way, but to apply the principle in particular trades and in a competitive system is often stupid and a misapprehension of the economic law involved. In the present instance, the coal owners and proprietors and lessees of mines naturally at this season, when the weather usually begins to be mild, wanted to reduce wages in face of possible reduced demand. As it happened the weather has been unusually severe and still remains so. The owners have not only been right in their calculations on ordinary grounds, but have been favoured by circumstances. The hoped for end of the crisis is that on the 12th inst., the owners having enjoyed abnormally high prices and got rid of their stocks, will be more generous to the men and not enforce their threatened 7½ per cent reduction in wages; and that the men seeing they have been made catspaws of, will not play into the hands of their employers by unnecessary demands.

Attention is called to the fact that if once the stream of the coal trade in England is diverted, the consequence may be serious to the miners. The members of the Miners' Federation are not blind to the consequences, and in Scotland and Wales as well as in Northumberland, the Federation finds difficulty in inducing the men outside the union to stop work even for a week. In Belgium and other continental places, the coal owners are on the alert, and as the Echo says, the present price of coal in South America, chiefly exported from this country, is already attracting the attention of coal-owners in Virginia and Alabama who are ready to step in and supply any deficiency on our part. The men will discover that competition, however much it may be abused by an immoral trading society, is an infallible fact that can only be met by superior work, if shorter hours of labour are to be attained contemporaneously with high wages. That this is attainable we have the assurance of a new and apparently good authority, an American writer on economics.

Lord Vernon, in an article in the "19th Century" on the absurd restrictions still existing on the sale of landed property in spite of the much vaunted "Settled Lands Act" of Lord Cairns, says:—"The law of settlement generally discourages the landlord desirous of improving his property, and gives him every incentive to invest any money he can lay his hands upon in American railways or Argentine 'insecurities'."

Under the heading "An Interpreter's Remarkable Career," we read of a gentleman named Weale who brought an action against the executors of Mr. Walker to recover damages for wrongful dismissal. Mr. Weale, who was more fortunate than Mr. Lowe, late Berlin correspondent of the Times, recovered £550. Mr. Weale seems to have been engaged in Buenos Ayres as interpreter to the contractor's firm. Although, apparently only 40 years of age, Mr. Weale had worked his way from the ranks to a commission in the Dragoon Guards. He left the army and went to the Argentine and tried sheep-farming. This did not succeed, and in 1877 he entered Messrs. Walker's employ at a salary of £100 per annum, which was afterwards raised to £500. In 1891 he came to England on leave and whilst here he received notice that his services were no longer required. Mr. Weale tells us that, after his dismissal, he tried every possible means to earn a livelihood and failed. He offered his services by advertisement and through registration and for the nominal remuneration of £80 per annum, but without success. His experiences are something similar to what we hear were Mr. Lowe's, who, on giving up his good billet in Berlin, found he could not make a living in London by his pen. There is no help for it in these cases but to open a cigar-shop—"at 20"—or make a voluntary exit, returning to the all-pervading ether whose violet-coloured beauties are now revealed to us in the glass-tubes of the young Americo-Montenegrin electrician Mr. Nikolo Tesla. He guesses that all we have to do is "to hook on our machinery to the machinery of Nature." While she blacks our boots for us, we can sit down and read penny novels. Tesla is the greatest practical socialist of the day. It is scarcely a Utopian idea to anticipate from recent revelations in electric science a motor force at our disposal which will revolutionise society and in time humanity.

ST. JOHN'S AMBULANCE. ASSOCIATION.

On Tuesday evening last a meeting was held in the Barracas Institute to inaugurate in this country the work of the above useful association, whose object is the giving, in the absence of medical assistance, of "first aid to the injured." The chair was taken by Mr. Barrow at 8 p.m. who introduced the lecturer, Sir Vincent Barrington, and on the platform were also present the Revd. Mr. Pinchard, Dr. Kehoe, Mr. Roberts (Western Railway,) Mr. Hill (Pacific,) Mr. Duncan Munro (Central Northern,) Mr. Chevallier Boutell, Mr. Wibberley, etc. The hall was crowded, some ladies being also present.

Mr. Barrow spoke of the useful work this association was doing in many parts of the world to-day. It seemed strange that it had not had as yet a footing in this country. Sir Vincent, he hoped, would succeed in convincing them as he had already convinced him. It frequently happened that a man's life ebbed away for want of a little timely assistance. He asked all those present to join the classes which would soon be formed, not only for their own sakes but for the sake of all those near and dear to them. Barracas Institute that night had the honour of proving the birth place of the Argentine Branch, and he hoped this might spread till it covered the whole Republic with its beneficent shade. (Applause.) It was an honour to have a gentleman so high in the official staff of the association to inaugurate this movement amongst them. He begged to introduce Sir Vincent Barrington, who knew more about this matter than he did.

Sir Vincent Barrington was received with great applause and he explained his objects at great length, while keeping the audience in a constant ripple of laughter. It was with pleasure, he said, that he addressed them that night. He was proud of the position that the railway managers had taken up, and he had no doubt it would redound to the advantage of the shareholders. He had frequently addressed his countrymen before, in India, Africa, and Brazil—sometimes with success, sometimes with failure. He preached the gospel of St. John—to save human life and unnecessary human suffering. This was the first duty of man, whatever his colour, his cast, or his creed. In five lectures any man of ordinary intelligence could learn everything to be done for an injured man—until the doctor arrived. These lectures would treat of how to stop bleeding, how to put up a broken limb with a temporary splint, how to save the apparently drowned or suffocated by artificial respiration, how to distinguish between falling fits and cases of poisoning, and lastly how best to carry away an injured man. Even the ladies might learn something as to the proper conduct of a sick-room, and he strongly advised all bachelors present to go on strike, until the girls had a certificate from the St. John's Ambulance Association (laughter). He then described all the trouble he had in seeing the President, the Chief of Police, Dr. Coni of the Asistencia Publica, etc., and getting them to reform the absurd law still in vogue, by which the 'vigilante' prevents all interference with an injured man. The President took a favourable view of the matter when he was told such a law might be good enough for Spain a hundred years ago, but by no means sufficient for a progressive country like this, at the tail end of the nineteenth century.

The Lecturer then related several stories from his varied experience in almost all countries, which were enlivened by an undercurrent of humour which it would be impossible to reproduce. One was of an elderly doctor, who riding in Hyde Park fell off and got stunned. It suddenly struck Sir Vincent at the time that when people arrived at the advanced age of their Lecturer (smiles) it was very likely they wore certain dental appendages (laughter.) Sure enough when he opened the man's mouth he found them sticking in his throat, but when he put in his finger to remove them it got caught firmly between two wisdom teeth—which were all that remained of the original set (laughter.) He howled with pain (renewed laughter.) Many unsympathetic on—lookers laughed, (etc.); and to add insult to injury the doctor called on him when he recovered, to ask him how his finger was! (laughter.)

Another case was related which took place at Middlesborough, in which some men were almost suffocated in the hold of a ship by the burning of cases of lucifer-matches. They were saved by some members of the Ambulance present. When the doctor arrived half an hour afterwards, he said the men must have surely died but for the assistance offered (applause.)

A man had been saved from bleeding to death in Dublin from a stab, and his deliverer had been afterwards complimented by the judge for saving two lives—not only the man himself, but that of his assailant (by the rope) (laughter); and so on with many other cases till the Lecturer described some ludicrous mistakes of people, in endeavouring to assist the injured—one of which was that of a man who finding a woman hanging herself, immediately ran for the police instead of cutting her down. He himself could only explain this conduct by suggesting that the lady must have been his mother-in-law (laughter); and another of some men who were rolling a half-drowned woman in a barrel, because, as they said, from motives of delicacy they objected to hang her up by the heels (laughter.) And so on.

He concluded in an eloquent appeal to all present to join the classes at once. It was a movement of real progress, and were they going to shirk the work that their fellows were already doing in England? It was a natural instinct with people to rush to the assistance of the injured, and he knew of a man who had jumped into the Thames to save a child and only remembered when in the water that he didn't know how to swim. (Laughter.) It had been arranged that the necessary lectures would be given by Dr. Kehoe with the assistance of Mr. Loveday, who was already one of their most distinguished pupils. He recommended them strongly to put their hearts in the work and to begin at once. (Applause.)

Some practical demonstrations followed in which Mr. Loveday and Mr. Cairns showed what could be done and how quickly in the various accidents to which our poor human nature is liable, Mr. Hurley kindly consenting to be operated on.

Rev. Mr. Pinchard, in language of unsurpassable richness and fluency, proposed a vote of thanks to the Lecturer. He said a man who spoke like that struck sparks of enthusiasm out of the hearts of everyone of them. It needed no words from him to accentuate the real feelings of gratitude which they felt towards Sir Vincent Barrington that night, for coming amongst them to inaugurate such a useful association. He only found one thing hard to believe, and that was that Sir Vincent had ever failed as a lecturer. They might be English people who refused to hear him, but certainly they were not like the English people in this country. He begged to call for a vote of thanks by acclamation (which was heartily given).

Mr. Barrow said they should lose no time in forming the classes, and then left the chair, when the meeting soon afterwards dispersed.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Our Entre-Rios exchanges contain particulars of the disastrous floods caused by the recent heavy rains. It appears that the embankment in Parana gave way, the Maveroff tramway station being destroyed. At the same time several waggons containing goods were crushed by the falling walls. The losses of the tramway company are considerable; they are estimated at 20,000 dols. The company are not responsible for the destruction of the goods in the waggons, this being a case of "fuerza mayor." Mr. Maveroff, who owns the concern, is a popular and energetic man, and the authorities immediately came to his assistance to remove the debris and enable him to resume traffic. The railway suffered likewise considerably; the rails in some parts were washed away. Between Caseros and 1°. de Mayo, about 250 yards of earthworks were washed away. Under these circumstances, of course, traffic has been suspended. The earthworks of the Villaguay Branch have been almost completely destroyed. The pillars of the Gualeguaychu bridge were washed away. In fact, the damage occasioned is so great that the engineers of the Company calculate it will take one thousand navvies 20 days to properly repair the line. The new Company does not appear to be particularly fortunate.

The rains were so heavy that all the rivers and arroyos of the province burst their banks and a good part of the fertile Mesopotamia of the Plate was inundated. At Diamante, the bridge across the Ensenada was swept away by the swollen waters and the town was thus cut off from the settlements. At Tala, 1500 cartloads of coal at the station were washed away. The towns of Tala and Villaguay were at one moment seriously threatened. Many houses were flooded and several families have been left homeless.

These Entre Rios floods appear to be of not infrequent occurrence. Two years ago the Central Entre-Riano was almost completely destroyed, but this is the first time the port of Parana has suffered. As Parana is a port of importance, the National Government is bound to do something to repair the damage occasioned and preclude the possibility of future disasters.

Our San Juan exchanges state that the financial condition of that province calls for immediate attention. The finance minister is drawing up an elaborate plan to save the situation. This is the usual way in which a new finance minister tackles difficulties. We trust H. E. will meet with more success than Mr. Faithful Lopez here.

Telegrams from Santa Fé report the rivers rising and inundations imminent.

Rosario appears to be in a state of great alarm, a general conviction having gained ground that we are on the eve of a revolution here. The Governor too is so much alarmed that he is thinking of withdrawing his resignation. His presence no doubt is calculated to intimidate would-be revolutionists, just as it has intimidated murderers and marauders.

RAILWAY TICKET TAX.

At foot will be found the decree of the Provincial Government respecting the Railway Ticket tax. We have already given in our railway section some extracts from the Attorney-General's report on the subject. The report is a very lengthy document, but so important that it deserves more than passing notice. The Attorney-General begins by stating that he would have doubted the right of the National Government to take up the question, and thought the Courts should decide the matter, but for the fact that the decree of the Provincial Government affects not only the interests of the railway but the private rights of the inhabitants of the country.

The Provincial decree provides that the railway companies place a five-cent stamp on their tickets, under pain of fine, to which even the passengers are liable, and for this purpose inspectors are appointed. Such a measure, according to the Attorney-General, would interfere with the right of transit, as every province would levy a similar tax. This is contrary to the Constitution. The right of transit is guaranteed by law and is supposed to develop trade and industry. The law, moreover, expressly forbids the provinces to limit that right of transit.

The provinces have no jurisdiction to intervene in National railway matters, which, in accordance with laws passed by Congress, are under the jurisdiction of the National Government. The law of November 24, 1891, includes in this jurisdiction railways connecting the capital or federal territory with any of the provinces or territories. Furthermore, according to their contracts the railways are free from taxes.

In conclusion the Attorney General declares that the National Government cannot allow the decree of the provincial Government to be carried out.

The La Plata Minister of Public Works had an interview with the Home Minister with a view to persuade him that the tax was legal, but the Home Minister refused to enter into any discussion on a subject which admitted of no doubt whatever.

The following is the provincial decree, repealing the tax:—

La Plata, March 26, 1892.

To the Finance Minister of the Province.

As I have already had occasion to state verbally, there are difficulties which prevent the collection of the railway tax from the 1st of April. In consequence, I beg to state that it is advisable to suspend the decree creating the tax.

Ignacio Irigoyen.

March 29, 1892—In view of the foregoing note, the decree creating a railway ticket tax is hereby suspended until further notice.

MUNICIPAL BONDS.

Mr. Editor,

In an article published by several of the morning papers it was stated that a $5000 bond of the Municipal loan of 25 millions, which was obtained by the agency of Mr. A. Vinas, (and corresponded to an issue which has not yet been received by the Municipality) was printed at Messrs Galli Bro's establishment.

We beg to say that we have no such printing establishment, and although it is true that we were entrusted with the work by the Municipality, the printing, and in fact all the work in connection with it, is being done by Messrs José Muller and Company, of 513 Piedad, to whom the printing branch of this business was sold on September 1st of last year.

It was while this work was under press that the $5000 bond referred to was extracted, and in order to discover the delinquent Judge Pizarro has initiated the corresponding "sumario."

As we are not responsible for an affair which took place in Messrs Muller and Company's printing establishment, we would feel extremely obliged if you would kindly insert this in your valuable paper.

We remain, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully.
J. A. Maendz,
M. Muller Diehl.

BARON HIRSCH'S COLONIES.

B. Aires, March 31st.

Mr. Editor,

Knowing the interest which your paper has taken always for our welfare, we beg to ask a space in yours.

In to-day's paper a person who calls himself Rabbi states that he came in contact during the last 30 years with immigrants of all nationalities to this country, and none without exception have been so cared for as the immigrants belonging to the Jewish Colonization Association.

Humanity calls us to declare before you, Mr. Editor, how the colonists are treated and supported. 5000 souls persecuted and oppressed, huddled together in rotten tents, exposed to the sun, rain and 'tormentas.' Four months ago a 'tormenta' destroyed all the tents of Moricio, 20 were wounded and 3 killed. In these miserable tents they reside, live, sleep, cook, eat, drink, fall sick and die, and now the winter is approaching.

It is only two months since a medical man was appointed at Moricio, and only a fortnight since another one was sent to Mosesville, both Drs. are at present in Buenos Ayres, defending our interests. And what good can these medical men do for the 200 more or less ill colonists, who were present in the colonies, and most of them befallen with typhus, if all the necessary medicines are not supplied; for medicine there exist no money, but for luxury there is to be had.

In every colony a dozen of employees are to be seen, who are spending their time in idleness and quarrel, between an other day and night every one calls himself Administrador. Last Monday such a quarrel passed at Moricio between the employees, and the end was two were wounded, and they ran to B. Ayres. Between all this regiment of employees not one has ever been a farmer or colonizador, and is not required to know it but only to write flattering articles in the European press, and of fending the colonists.

How long does it require to give a colonist the plot of land, implements and cattle which was promised to him? one or two months, but not two years.

Why has it not been given to us to work, why is it given to the "criollos" with good wages? Because they have the special duty to be always armed against us and to frighten us.

On the 16th February last the colonists of Moricio was invaded by 150 "peones" armed with remingtons, revolvers and pistols, and 16 of them arrested for 18 days at Nueve de Julio; the same was done at Mosesville.

What crime did they commit? Did they revolt? No, Mr. Editor, it is a well known fact that Jews never revolt; more they are persecuted and persecuted, more patient and obedient they are. The only crime they committed was that the administrator supposed that they published in the European press in what slavery they fell in.

Did not the Irish colonists of the late Naposta colony appeal to the British residents here declaring their grievances? Did not the British and Irish residents interfere in their cause?

But we, Jews, are not allowed to do it, not one of the Jewish residents has taken interest, and, on contrary, they persecuted us more; but thanks to Heaven that several Englishmen and Frenchmen, not Jews, between them one of the greatest English philanthropists, have appealed to Baron Hirsch in this critical time on our behalf. These gentlemen have visited the colonies and have seen with their own eyes that we are at present more in a miserable position than under the Czar.

Dear Sir, to give you an instance of the many instances, which we have in what manner the Millions of the Philanthrop are casted. We say that for making 100 kilos of candles 3,600 kilos of tallow are wanted, and three peons are employed. Everywhere you may hear, Dear Editor, from the employées "Apres nous le deluge."

How long can we remain patient, everyone who is not interested would give us justice that we have waited sufficient to make known our suffering and grievance, but we have been provoked to it; we were calumniated by our "patron," the Baron, and the Jewish name was offended here, by publishing the letter, without his intention, in the press, and as long there exist not a Rabbi in Argentine to protect and defend our interest it is our duty to do it.

The only hope which we had, and have, is to our noble correligionist, the modern Joshua, Col. Goldsmid, to ameliorate our position and our persecutors tried to deprive us of this hope too; it was saidby the employees to the colonists that Lt. Col. A. Goldsmid, of the English War Department, and late aide-de-camp of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, has been appointed as secretary to Mr. Rabbi, the present representative of the Baron.

We declare and protest against this person who calls himself without right in to-day's STANDARD Rabbi; until now we have no Rabbi to defend our interests, and he will arrive soon.

We declare publicly in the name of all the Jewish colonists that we refuse to acknowledge him as Rabbi, as long as he was not educated in a theological school—and not appointed by the Grand Rabbis of London, Paris and Berlin—and as long as he is the purchaser of the Jewish Colonisation Society, taking 5% of every business transacted by him.

We are orthodox Jews and our Rabbi ought to be a man educated in the doctrine of our religion; what we recognize him is as a merchant, and one of those who were mixed in the oppression of the first Jewish settler sin 1889.

We are convinced that Col. Goldsmid will ammeliorate our suffering and disclose all the irregularities in the present administration, and justice will be done.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Judge Garay has sentenced the City of Buenos Ayres Tramways Company to pay Mr. Bartholomew Ferro the sum of $8000 as indemnity for breaking his leg in August 1889. The plaintiff claimed $30,000 damages, but his Lordship has though it right to cut this amount down to the figure mentioned. The defendants have, moreover, to pay the costs, which are no small matter.

We take the following traffic-returns from our London exchanges of March 5th:—

Argentine Great Western. — Miles open, 319. Traffic receipts for week ending Feb. 26th, 1892, were $58,900, as against $43,482 for the corresponding week last year. Increase, $15,418.

Buenos Ayres and Pacific — Miles open, 426. The approximate earnings for the week ending Feb. 27th, 1892, were $59,400, Actual receipts for corresponding period, 1891, $56,018. Increase, $3,382. Aggregate from Jan. 1st, 1892, to date, $559,423; 1891, $450,985. Increase, $108,438.

Buenos Ayres and Ensenada Port.—Miles open, 92. Traffic receipts for week ending Feb. 28, 1892, $45,251, equals £2,580, gold premium, 248; corresponding week, 1891, $45,486, equals £2,577, gold premium, 249; decrease £7. Aggregate 9 weeks and 3 days, 1892, £19,778, as against £22,679 for 8 weeks and 4 days 1891; decrease, £3,901.

The Financial Times says:—Holders of debentures issued here for the construction of South American railways are now discovering, for the first time, that in some cases these issues are not what they were supposed to be. The debentures, which it is now proposed in some cases to supersede by prior lien bonds in order to save the railroad from confiscation by the Government, were no debentures at all, and holders are very naturally inquiring if they cannot compel the issuing houses to refund the money which was taken by them for a security which they must have known was not a debenture in the sense in which the word is used in this country.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was a very so so kind of day: neither fish, flesh nor good red herring from a newsy or any other point of view. This being the Festival of All Fools, there ought to be some liveliness in affairs in general; from the top to the bottom of the social tree.

We have not got "Argentine and the Argentines"; otherwise, we should be most happy to lend it to our railway correspondent.

The latest novelty for ladies in Europe is a little mirror concealed in the palm of their left hand glove, and which enables them at a glance to see whether their hair, bonnet, brooches etc. are in proper "killing" order for the male sex, and calculated to make their own mad with envy.

The Volunteers, with Colonel Roque Saenz Peña at their head, marched from Palermo to Plaza Victoria yesterday morning. The young fellows looked very well indeed, and marched with most creditable regularity, considering the little drill they have had.

The German Rowing Club Teutonia will hold its regatta at the Tigre on Sunday next. There are seven events, all printed in the best German; but, owing to the absence of our German correspondent, we are quite unable to describe or descant on them, except the last "Schwimmen," which we guess to mean Swimming. As for the wind-up, "Preisvertheilung," we can only suppose that it is meant to express a hope that the lungs of the spectators will be in good condition for cheering at the distribution of prizes.

Whoever wants to laugh heartily should read Sir Vincent Barrington's lecture, at breakfast this morning.

Oh! Lord Vernon, Lord Vernon! This nobleman must have "secured" a lot of Cedulas and guaranteed railway shares at par, as we note in our London Letter that he recently referred to all the beautifully printed paper that poor Europe now holds in exchange for its sovereigns, francs and marks, as "Argentine insecurities."

There will be Quarterly Communion at the Scotch Church on Sunday next and a preparatory service to-night at 7.30 p. m. On Sunday the collection will be for the Charity Fund.

We call attention to an advertisement in another column begging all who have books from the Scotch Church Library to return the same at once. The sooner books are returned, the sooner will the Library be reopened.

Another sad warning against daring to go to Rio Janeiro. Mr. and Miss. Acevedo, wife and daughter of the well-known Montevidean merchant, went there a few weeks ago, to reside permanently, caught yellow fever, and are now in their graves.

They seem to be working well at home for our British Hospital Bazaar. We find the following grateful figures in the South American Journal of March 5th:—

"The following is a further list of subscriptions to the B. Ayres British Hospital Bazaar:—

Total received to 26th Feb.		£124	3 0
A. E. Archer, Esq.....		10	0 0
Mr. & Mrs. John Fair.....	£10 10 0
Mr. & Mrs. W.A. Gardiner.....	2 2 0

Messrs. Craven	£1 1 0
Messrs. Joseph Lucas & Son	1 1 0

		£154	2 0

"In addition to the above sums in money we have pleasure in stating that Messrs. Thomas Sheldon & Co, of Wolverhampton, have, through Messrs. Shaw, Le Roy & Co., made the handsome donation of three casks of hollow-ware of the value of £22, which are being shipped free of charge through the kindness of Messr. MacIver".

The French are going to bundle all their foreign Anarchists across their frontier. This is only driving the disease from one part of the European body social to another. Far better catch them red-handed and: Off with their heads. So much for Anarchists! Richard the Third fashion. The Anarchists are "off their heads," so the sooner their heads are off the better for Europe at large.

Telegrams from Chile announce the departure for Buenos Ayres of Señora Balmaceda, mother of the ex-Dictator. The old lady has all the pluck of her son, as she is coming across the Cordillera, rather a formidable journey for an ancient dame. All the principal Chilian papers bade her a kind farewell. She intends to reside permanently in this country. She made her will before leaving her native land.

The West Coast is still shaking under the inhabitants' feet. At Iquique and Tacna on Wednesday there were several shocks of earthquake that caused the cornices of houses to fall, broke the window panes, smashed bottles in domestic pantries, and made things in general most unpleasantly lively. Nevertheless, nobody was hurt in the least.

One down and the other come on. Yellow fever is declining in Rio; but as a "quid pro quo," the commercial and monetary crisis is getting worse, and immortal smash is within measurable distance, as the G. O. M. would say.

In a churchyard in Surrey the following is to be seen on the tombstone belonging to the Strange family—"Here lies an honest lawyer, that's Strange."

Dr. Mackern's legion of patients will take note that he has moved his consulting rooms from Calle Tucuman to Calle General Lavalle, 716.

We have received a letter in praise of the Central Produce Market, but, as it is rather personal it now lies snugly in our w. p. b., except the following extract, which we feel much pleasure in endorsing:—"It will be no surprise to see all the railways adopt that market, in which to unload their thousands of tons of produce, with much advantage to themselves and the public. It will be wondered, at all events, why this has not been the case before now."

Colonel Goldsmid, Baron Hirsch's agent, who will be here in a few days, is referred to as follows by a London contemporary:—"Colonel Albert Goldsmid, Baron Hirsch's envoy to the Argentine, starts for Buenos Ayres, which he will make his headquarters, on 10th March. The colonel, who holds the position of Deputy Assistant Qu

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.
Thursday, March 31
The settlement came off very quietly this morning. If anything, the market was 'long' of gold, and this prevented the heavy rise that under other circumstances would have been the upshot of all the alarming political rumors rampant in the hall. According to the wiseacres, the political situation is becoming daily more critical, and the market is on a volcano threatening eruption at any moment. The majority, however, are of opinion that all this political agitation, with its trail of dismal rumors, is a mere dodge, a kind of intimidation, to frighten the citizens away from the polls on the 10th prox. At all events, there is an uncomfortable feeling in the market, but there are no symptoms of panic.
About 21,000 ounces changed hands for cash this morning; the price opened at 56.60, fell to 56.50, rose to 56.70, and closed at 56.60, say 247½ % premium. Two thousand sovereigns were sold; the price opened at 17.56, rose to 17.58 and closed at 17.57, say 248½ % premium. The market ruled steady as a rock all morning, and the month of April dawns with a bullish tendency in the speculation. At foot we append a comparative table of the daily closing prices of ounces at the first ring for the last two months, also a comparative table of the value of $100 gold reckoned daily according to the closing prices of ounces:—

The above figures show that the gold market has remained more or less steady for the last five weeks; a great push has been made to make'n headlong fall, and but for the sudden critical condition of politics the bears would have succeeded. The heavy exchange transactions of the German Bank have been a powerful brake on the rise.
The gold business was very heavy this month: the amount of specie sold since the 1st is as follows:—

Ounces	690,581
£ stg	85,443

All the heavy business was done in the first ten days of the month, when the bears expected to repeat the February operation which gave them such enormous profits; in view of the stubborn resistance of the premium the speculation for a fall slackened and comparatively little business was done between the 10th and 25th; since then operations have been on a heavier scale as the market entered the stage of liquidation. The prospects of April do not augur much activity, but the clouds on the political horizon point to a rising bullish speculation, unless some political "pampero" burst and clear the sky. They say the unexpected is the rule in this market: let us hope so, for affairs do not look reassuring at the present moment.
Stocks and Shares were dull this morning. Patriotic Bonds rose slightly, closing at 60. A few shares of the French Bank changed hands at 314 gold. Shares of the Banco Agricola Comercial were quoted at 15. La Plata Cedulas were slightly weaker.
Exchange remained in "statu quo"—same rates as yesterday and not much doing. Discounts continued very difficult.

7th, 8th, 9th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st April between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. The public are no doubt aware that shareholders of the National Bank enjoy preference in the subscription. The subscription can be effected in paper-money or in Patriotic Bonds, which will be accepted in payment at 75 % of their face value. We hope that the public will come forward and fill the subscription lists; otherwise the Banco de la Nacion Argentina will remain a State Bank, under immediate control of the Government.

A colleague announces that there are 144,718 shares of the National Bank aboard one of the packets at present in quarantine in the Outer Roads. These shares have been forwarded by the Argentine Commissioner in London, Dr. Victorino de la Plaza, for conversion into Patriotic Bonds according to the stipulations of the respective law.

The Board of the National Mortgage Bank notify holders of National Gold Cedulas A that on the 1st of April the coupons of October 1891 and April 1892 will be paid in the National Bonds created by law of 27th October 1891.

The Board of the Old Gas Company will begin paying a dividend on shares of series A to-morrow.

Cedula-holders wish to know when the Board of the La Plata Mortgage Bank will resume the publication of the monthly balance-sheets.

The Board of the National Mortgage Bank notify holders of National gold Cedulas A that the option to convert their gold stock into paper Cedulas, according to law of 29th October 1891, will be extended till the 30th September. Gold debtors of the Bank are notified that a further term up to May 31st is allowed for payment of delayed service in gold Cedulas at their face value, on condition that the bonds bear the April 1892 coupon; should this coupon not be attached the debtor can hand in the National Bonds with which the Bank meets the service on these Cedulas or pay in gold at the rate of two to one. Gold debtors can also avail of the option of changing their debts into legal tender, under the provisions of the respective law, up to 31st May. Holders of these gold Cedulas and gold debtors of the National Mortgage Bank should apply for a copy of these new regulations.

Mr. R. Moller, sr., and Mr. Aug. Moll have withdrawn from the well-known firm Moller & Co. The business will be conducted by the other two partners, Messrs. G. Garbens and E. Moller, jr.

There was no second ring on Change to-day, owing to the monthly settlement. Gold was quoted outside on the kerbstone at $56.70 per onuce, buyers. The market was firm at the rate.

The cheques of the Provincial Bank closed to-day at 51⅞ discount; cheques of other banks were stationary.

Telegrams from Rio quote exchange on London at 11¼d.

In thereport of the Deutsche Bank we see that the net profits of the year 1891, amounting to $468,851 represent 12½ per cent. on the capital, and are to be appropriated as follows: £337,500 to dividend of 9 per cent. to shareholders, £28,133 to ordinary reserve, £55,604 to directors and managers, £10,000 to building reserve, £20,000 to superannuation fund and gratuities to staff, and £17,594 carried forward to new account. The report states that the year 1891 was characterised in Germany by a considerable decline in commercial activity, the effects of which have been particularly observable in the lessened demand for manufactured goods, and in the fall which has taken place in the value of various kinds of raw material. At the same time, the general economic position has been rendered still more unfavourable by a concurrent advance in the price of grain. Not only has the commercial community suffered losses from these and other causes, but the investing public, and especially holders of Argentine and Portuguese securities, have also met with reverses, which in no small measure have helped to check business enterprise and to intensify the prevailing feeling of depression on the Stock Exchange. Under such circumstances as these it is not surprising that the transactions of the bank have undergone some diminution, but on the other hand it is a matter for congratulation that, in spite of all adverse influences, the results obtained have been so favourable, the gross profit for the year, including the balance brought forward from 1890, amounting to £688,383. The Ueberseе Bank here in B. Ayres has paid its way; owing to shrinkage of business and the crisis the branch has not been able to operate freely and the results are not brilliant.

"The arrangement that has been announced this week with regard to dealing with the debt of the City of Montevideo somewhat puts the Uruguayan Government to the blush, for it will be recollected that the Uruguayan Government arrangement scales down the interest for ever and a day to 3½ per cent. The city of Montevideo arrangement is that for three years, in place of the 6 per cent which the bonds are entitled to, there will be paid 4 per cent for three years, thereafter 4½ per cent for another three years, then 5 per cent for another three years, and subsequently the full redemption of the 6 per cent interest. Then as regards the sinking funds the arrangement is that there shall be no redemption for the first three years, a 1/2 per cent accumulative for a period of six years, and thereafter the full rate of 1 per cent. In case the arrangement is acceptable to the bondholders, a meeting being called for the 11th inst., the overdue unpaid interest is to be waived as to a cash distribution, bonds being given for the amount, and the first coupon to fall due under the new arrangement will be June 1st."

The scheme for reconstructing the English Bank of the River Plate, which we published 'in extenso' yesterday, has won universal approval from those who are competent to appreciate clever, and, at the same time, perfectly straightforward finance. It grinds nobody's pet axe, but is to the advantage of everybody concerned. Put briefly, it amounts to this—that the shareholders, by paying five shillings per share more than the liquidator's call, will receive one £10 Ordinary and one £5 Preference share in the new Bank, both fully paid and both free from all liability whatever. The alternative is to pay five shillings less and get nothing for it, so that so far as the shareholders are concerned there cannot be a moment's hesitation as to the best course to adopt. The creditors, on the other hand, instead of taking the chance of getting what the assets of the old bank may realise under a forced liquidation, will receive promissory notes of a new concern which will possess the same assets, and which will be prohibited from doing new business, except receiving money on deposit, until fifty per cent of the creditors' claims have been satisfied, including interest. Moreover, all experience shows that realisation by a commercial Board of Directors of such assets as those of a bank in liquidation will be more to the creditors' interest than one by a liquidator whose strictly defined duties preclude him from 'nursing' the assets, even in the interest of the creditors themselves.—Financial Times.

CHARLES OLMI

GRANDIOSE

Auction

Of Art Treasures! A veritable Exhibition! An incomparable Show of Tapestry, Carpets and Smyrna curtains and woven articles. A Regal Residence! Admirable original paintings, truly artistic, by Caprile, Bertoletti, Pastiglioni, De Martino, Lancerotto, Michetti, Graner, Cusachs, and Dalbano, some of which obtained first prizes at the Barcelona Exhibition in 1888.

Incomparable original Bronzes by Barbella and others. I declare, without hesitation, that nothing better as works of art has ever been offered for sale in this city. Superb Persian tapestries. Costly stuffs from the far East. Regal Smyrna carpets and curtains in every part of the house. Splendid Eastern door hangings. Regal chandeliers. Magnificent piano. Large Venetian mirrors. Costly Boule and inlaid furniture. Imposing Oriental drawing room. The study is simply unique, in this or any other country. Library of select works. Louis Quatorze drawing-room. Regal Certosino vestibule. Splendid Henri Deux dining-room. Grand Bedroom in the style of Louis XVI—three rooms thrown into one. Another for one person. Billiard room. Work-baskets, works of art and all the other valuable household belongings of a Spanish gentleman living at 884 Calle Bolivar, between Independencia and Estados Unidos.

People of taste should take advantage of this truly regal auction. It is a sheer impossibility to describe the masterpieces that are about to be sold; but connoisseurs can visit the house, certain to find therein textiles and original bronzes unapproachable as works of art. As for the gorgeous furniture and invaluable Eastern curtains, carpets, tapestry and textiles generally, suffice it to say that the former was made in Paris by the old firm of Krieger and Dienst, and the latter in Smyrna, to a private order.

I call the special attention of connoisseurs to the valuable Gobelin, hand woven tapestries, known by the names of Kelims, Kassaks and Kamschaska, in the gorgeous Oriental drawing-room, which cost a fortune, the style and decoration of the room being a fac-simile of the aristocratic salons of Constantinople. As for the rest, the luxury and perfect taste apparent throughout the house are above all praise. Every article in it rivals another in value. This truly splendid house must command the attention of all, as it is absolutely exceptional.

On Tuesday April 5th

at noon, I will sell at public auction for account of and by order from the owner, the above valuable collection of household furniture, complete details of which will be found in the SPECIAL CATALOGUES which can be obtained at the house itself, or in my mart at 566 Calle Piedad, on the morning of Thursday, 31st inst. From that day the house will be open every day for inspection, from 10 a.m. till 11 p.m. that is for five clear days before the auction, in order that those interested may have time to carefully examine and impress on their minds the excellence of the Gobelins, tapestry, and genuine curtains and carpets from Smyrna, the cosily make of the furniture, and the exceptional artistic value of the paintings and bronzes.
